This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

+ Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.

+ Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.

+ Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.

+ Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

PREFACE.

THE present volume forms part of a series of Calendars of the Patent Rolls from the reign of Edward I. to that of Henry VII., the object and character of which is explained in the Preface to the first volume for the reign of Edward III. (A.D. 1327—1330.) The text has been prepared, under my immediate supervision, by Mr. J. G. Black, with some assistance from Mr. G. F. Handcock and Mr. R. F. Isaacson, all of the Public Record Office. Mr. Black has also compiled the Index.

Safe-conduct, during pleasure, for the merchants of Brabant.

Oct. 5. Westminster. Safe-conduct for fifteen days for divers Welshmen whom Walter de Pederton, constable of the castle of Kermerdin, by the king's command caused to be brought from West Wales and South Wales to Winchester to go forth on the king's service, and who have permission to return to their own parts, as the king has no need of their services for the present.

Presentation of the following to the following churches :—

Oct. 4. Westminster. Peter de Gildeford to the church of Crawelle, in the diocese of Lincoln, in the king's gift by reason of his custody of the land and heir of Isabella de Fortibus, sometime countess of Albemarle, tenant in chief.

Oct. 6. Westminster. John de Drax to the church of All Saints, Hereford, in the diocese of Hereford.

Oct. 7. Westminster. Master Peter Ducet to the church of Aveningge, in the diocese of Worcester, in the king's gift by reason of his custody of the lands and tenements in England of the abbey of Caen now void.

Oct. 7. Westminster. Robert de Bardelby to the church of Sandhurst, in the diocese of Canterbury, in the king's gift by reason of the voidance of the see.

Oct. 5. Westminster. Pardon to Robert de Corbrigg of Bywell of his outlawry for the death of Richard le Tayllour, as it appears by testimony before the king that his son, John de Corbrigg of Bywell has, for this reason, offered of his own free will to go to Gascony on the king's service in the company of Edmund, the king's brother.

Oct. 8. Westminster. Protection with clause volumus, for two years, in Ireland, for Peter de Abyton, clerk of the household of Edward, the king's son, staying in England on the service of the said Edward.

Nov. 12. Westminster. Power, at the request of the prelates, earls, barons and others of the council, to Roger Brabazun and William de Bereford, to take bond of all persons charged with offences, who are willing to come into the king's peace, (1) that they will immediately set forth on the king's service to Wales, and remain there at the king's wages, during pleasure, and thence set forth on the king's service to Gascony, and remain there at the king's wages, during pleasure, (2) that upon their return from Wales, or from Gascony, if they should go there, they will stand their trial, if any one wishes to implead them for homicides, robberies and other crimes, and trespasses, whereof they are charged or appealed, or for which they are imprisoned, outlawed, or in hiding; and for such manucaption testified by the said justices before the Chancery, they are to have letters patent of pardon of the king's suit. The king is moved to this by pity as well as by the request of the Council, because so many and such different kinds of men are frequently in danger of losing life or limb; some being charged, indicted or appealed by approvers, of homicides, robberies and other crimes against the peace; some wandering about the country for trespasses in the forest doing much mischief, so that part of them come to be imprisoned, or outlawed, or are in hiding.

Nov. 10. Westminster. Licence for the alienation in mortmain by Richard de Damas of Bruges of two messuages, 65 acres of land, and half an acre of meadow in Brugges and Netherton by Quatford, to a chaplain celebrating divine service in the chapel of St. Mary Magdalene, Brugges.

between Waltham Cross and Waltham town, and the persons who ought to repair the same, and to return the inquisition without delay.

June 29. Portsmouth. Commission of oyer and terminer to Bogo de Knovill and Roger le Rus touching the persons who assaulted John de Danehirst, the king's bailiff, and bailiff of the abbot of Radding for his liberty of Leomynistre, at Leomynistre, co. Hereford, took out of his hands the return of a writ directed to the sheriff, and delivered by him to the bailiff within the said liberty for execution, and trampled it in the mud so that it could not be found, and the king's command contained therein could not be executed.

July 4. Portsmouth. The like to Thomas de Hakeford and William Haward, on petition of the prisoners, touching the appeal, if any, against Bertram de Ferle, John Cale, Nicholas Ketingg, Nicholas de Hamburgh, Werner de Ponte, Nicholas Scack, Durus de Friseland, Hoytectus de Hamburgh, Audolphus de Appingdamme, James de Leworth, Tydricus le Frysun, Essellus le Frysun, Martin le Frysun, Meynardus le Frysun, Wolfardus le Frysun, Ovo le Frysun and Ulbottus le Frysun, men of the king of Almain, in custody in the gaol of Norwich castle for the death of Walter Kyng, William atte Wro and Geoffrey Seman. By K., on the information of G. de Robury.

July 4. Portsmouth. Association of Thomas de Burneham, in the room of John Dyne, now deceased, with Gilbert de Thorneton and Ralph de Paynel in a commission to remove the obstructions in the course of the river Ancolne, as it appears by inquisition ad quod damnum made by the sheriff of Lincoln, that it will be for the benefit of the country if it is cleared from Bishop's Bridge to the river Humbre, as the meadows and pastures are without water, and ships and boats can no longer pass into the parts of Lyndeseye as they were wont to do.

July 12. Portsmouth. Commission of oyer and terminer to R. de Retford and J. de Insula, on complaint by Robert de Tateshale and Roger de Monte Alto, who are going to Gascony on the king's service, that whereas they and their ancestors have by royal charters certain measures, sealed with a common seal, for corn, salt, wine, ale and other things, in the port of Lenn, co. Norfolk, and fines for the breach thereof, and attachments for trespasses against the same, Peter Thurdeyn, Alan de Lyndeseye, Simon de Waynflet, Robert le Taillur and Richard Mumby, burgesses of the town of Lenn, broke the said measures and prevented the said fines and attachments from being made.

——— Commission [of oyer and terminer] to William de Ormesby and Thomas
—— de Hakeford, in the room of Ralph de Sandwyco, Robert Malet and Thomas de Belhous, the last having died and the others being engaged on the king's special affairs, touching an appeal which Edmund Babbe brings in the county of Suffolk against Nicholas de Cumbes for the death of Thomas Babbe, his brother. [The entry is incomplete.]

July 26. Fareham. Commission of oyer and terminer to Bogo de Knovill, Robert Corbet and William de Tytteleye, touching the persons who broke the parks of Peter Corbet at Worthy and Menstreleye, co. Salop, hunted in his free chace at Hocstowe and carried away deer.

The like to R. le Rus and Giles de Berkeleye to deliver Gloucester gaol of William de Derneford, in custody there on the appeal of a king's approver, who broke prison at Old Sarum, fled to church and abjured the realm.

July 28. Fareham. Commission of oyer and terminer to William de Ormesby and Thomas de Hakeford touching the persons who came to the manor of Nicholas de Trowes and Joan, his wife, at Walsham, co. Norfolk, assaulted the said Nicholas, who was going to Gascony on the king's service, carried away his goods, and abducted the said Joan. By K.

1294. MEMBRANE 13*d*.

July 28. Fareham. Commission of oyer and terminer, for the second time, to Hugh de Cressingham and John Wogan by jury of the parts of Westwales, Haverford, the bishopric of St. Davids and Pembroke, touching the port of Muleford and the metes and bounds between the towns of Haverford and Pembrok; as it appears that delay arose in enquiring into some articles because Master Ralph de Ivingho and his fellows, justices appointed to hear and determine complaints against ministers of Eleanor, the late queen-consort, omitted to send the said commissioners the record and process of a plaint on behalf of William de Valencia, the king's uncle, and Joan his wife, touching divers of those articles. Any points determined during the life of the said Eleanor are to remain unaltered. By K.

Aug. 1. Fareham. Commission of oyer and terminer to John de Botetourte and William son of William Gerberge the younger, on complaint by Reynbricghtus de Greninge and Folcardus de Greninge, merchants of Almain, that when their ship was in the port of Brunham, co. Norfolk, certain persons carried away goods therefrom. By K.

Aug. 3. Fareham. Commission of oyer and terminer to William de Carleton and William de Gerberge the younger, on complaint by Robert Tibotot, who is under the king's special protection, that Ralph de Langeleye of Edwardeston, Ralph his son and Roesia his wife, William le Carpenter of Aketon, Robert Rumhaund, Robert Mone and Roger Mone of Edwardeston, entered the manor of Edwardeston, co. Suffolk, now in his custody by the king's appointment, carried away his goods there, which they detain, and assaulted his men.

The like to William de Bereford and Ralph de Berners, on petition of the appellees, touching an appeal which Isabella, late the wife of Elias Bolay, brings in the county of Kent against Richard Attepette of Chalke, Alice his wife, John le Barbour, clerk, Robert Cubert of Culinge, William de Hyrye of Merston and William de Eylesham for the death of her husband, and against Ralph Attepette of Chalke, and Robert Turk of London for receiving them. By K., on the information of G. de Roubury.

July 28. Fareham. Commission to Robert Malet and William de Bereford to view the gorces and weirs in the Thames in the counties of Middlesex, Surrey, Berks, Buckingham and Oxford, as it appears that divers magnates and others having tenements by the river Thames and the river of the moor of Ottemor, between the city of London and the said moor, have erected gorces and weirs where they were not wont to be, and have straitened and raised the height of others, and that fishermen and others take small fish with narrow nets and kidels contrary to the assize in these and other rivers in the said counties; by reason whereof vessels cannot pass as they were wont. They are to remove all weirs made or raised contrary to the assize, and to burn such nets and destroy the kidels.

Dec. 16. Westminster. Commission to William de Carleton and John de Insula, on complaint by John son of Thomas de Oystregate, to examine the record and process of a plea which was in the hustings before the keeper and sheriffs of London, between Alice daughter of Clarkyn Lumbard and Roesia her sister, heirs of Henry de Sudbury, and the said John touching a messuage in London; and to correct any error therein.

Dec. 14. Westminster. The like to John de Metingham and Peter Malorre, with respect to a plea there between Peter Berneval and Matilda his wife, demandants, and Jordan le Macegref, tenant of two messuages in the suburb of London.

Dec. 14. Westminster. Association of William de Carleton and John de Insula, on complaint by Christiana Box, with the keeper and sheriffs of London, to cause to be recited before them the record and process of a plea which was brought before the latter by Roger Coleman and Dionisia his wife against the said Christiana touching three messuages and five shops in London, and to correct any error therein; as it appears that the said Christiana had, long before this plea, deposited her charters and muniments concerning the premises with Gregory de Rokeslee, deceased, whose goods, after death, were taken into the king's hands, and these charters being amongst them, she was unable to defend her right. The said charters are now in her possession, and Nicholas de Cokfeld, who is staying in Gascony on the king's service, having lately married her, the king, desiring to assist them as far as he may, has granted this commission.

Dec. 10. Westminster. Commission of oyer and terminer to Elias de Berkyngham, Peter Malore and William Inge, on complaint by O. bishop of Lincoln, that Ranulph de Ry, contrary to the homage and fealty done by him for land held of the bishop, and Laurence de Hoddesak, with a multitude of malefactors, assaulted him at Gosberchurche, co. Lincoln, as he was on his way to the church there to preach the word of God to the parishioners, drew arrows upon him and wounded some of his men.

heretofore ordered by the king and council that the said William should repair the breach for a certain sum of money, but, as the king hears on trustworthy testimony, he has spent that sum and some of his own money, and still the work begun is incomplete. It has therefore been ordered by the king and council that the said lands be taken into the king's hands, and be committed to some good and lawful man willing to receive them with the charge of repairing the said bank or wall, to hold by their extent until the expenses incurred are raised from the issues of the said lands. And, as no one has been yet found willing to undertake such a charge, and considering the care and labour already bestowed by the said William, and the expenses incurred by him, he is appointed thereto until he be reimbursed and the work completed. The lands are then to be restored to the persons to whom they belong. And if anyone wishes to pay his proportion of the cost, he shall be permitted to do so, and that portion of land be restored to him.

Mandates to the sheriffs of Kent and Surrey to take the said lands into the king's hands at once and to deliver them to the said William.

July 19. Kirkliston. Signification to R. archbishop of Canterbury of the royal assent to the election of John de Langeton, the chancellor, as bishop of Ely. The king was first requested, on behalf of some monks of the chapter of Ely and also by their letters, to give his assent to the election which was said to have been made by them of John their prior, but he refused it because the said letters were in a defective and undue form, and were not confirmed by the common seal of the chapter. Afterwards the king was in like manner requested, on behalf of some other monks of the said chapter, who asserted themselves to be the sounder part of the chapter, and by their letters, to give his assent to the election of John de Langeton, the chancellor, as their bishop. The latter letters were couched in due form, and as no defect could be found in them by pretext whereof the king should refuse his assent, except that they were not sealed by the common seal, which could not be obtained by reason of the dissension of the parties, the king, weighing the matter carefully, and considering that the chancellor would be a proper person to rule that church, and had always been and still is, in many ways, useful and faithful to the king and the realm, has given his assent to his election as bishop (antistitem).

June 25. Lewes. Notification to the commonalty of the counties of Warwick and Leicester that the king has ordered the persons appointed to make the perambulation of the forest to be at Norhampton at Michaelmas at latest, and that if any of them should be prevented, he will send others in their places, so that there shall be no delay beyond that term. He would have sent them sooner had it not been for some people, who were giving him much trouble. He also prays all people not to believe the contrary of these things, and has issued this proclamation because he has heard that some people go about saying that he is not going to keep Magna Carta or the Carta de Foresta, or to suffer the perambulation to be made according to his promise, whereas the king's will is that it shall be made, to wit, according to the form of his recent grant, which was to be as soon as possible after he had finished the business concerning the apostolic message, which is now settled and sworn on both sides, thank God. And inasmuch as the message is due in England at Canterbury by Saturday or Sunday next after the feast of Swithin at latest, to complete some matters which touch this business, which matters cannot be dealt with without the king's presence, and inasmuch as it is necessary to have near him on that day some of those who are appointed to make the said perambulation, so that the business cannot be done in such a hurry, and further, inasmuch as the season of August is approaching so that the business could not be undertaken nor the commonalty attend without great damage; therefore the king has appointed the above date. French.

The like to the commonalty of every county in England.

Mandate by letters close to every sheriff to take with him some good religious (aucun prodhomme religious) of his bailiwick, who can bear witness to the above letters, and to cause them to be read in cities, boroughs, market towns, and other places without delay, and commonly cried to all, and the tenor thereof to be known to every one, and when he has done so, he is to certify the king under his seal and that of the said religious. French.

April 1. Westminster. Confirmation, after inquisition ad quod damnum made by Walter de Gloucestre, escheator, this side Trent, whereby it appears that this will be to the prejudice only of the heirs of Edmund, earl of Cornwall, the king's kinsman, of an assignment in fee simple made by the earl to Walter de Cornubia, his brother, of land to the value of 18*l.* a year in his manor of Branel.

MEMBRANE 22.

March 30. Westminster. Inspeximus and confirmation of (1) a charter and confirmation by Randlph, sometime earl of Chester, directed to his constable, butler, justice, sheriff, barons and bailiffs, men and friends, whereby he, having taken the cross, grants for the love of God, and at the petition of his barons of Cestreshirie, the following liberties to his said barons and their heirs:— Every one of them shall have his court free from all pleas and causes moved in the earl's court, except pleas belonging to the earl's sword. If any of their men be taken for any offence, he shall be replevied by his lord without ransom, on condition that his lord produce him at three counties and take him back quit unless the sacaburh (sacraber) sue him. If any stranger of the earl's allegiance come into their lands to dwell there, the baron may have him and keep him, saving to the earl avowers (advocariis) who have come to him of their own freewill, and others who, by reason of transgression elsewhere, shall come to the earl (ad dignitatem meam) and not to the barons. Every baron, when need requires in war, shall fully perform the service of as many knights' fees as he holds, and their knights and tenants holding freely shall have their breastplates and hauberks, and defend their fees by their bodies even though they should not be knights, and if any one is such that he cannot defend his land by his body, he may find a sufficient substitute. The earl will not swear their bondmen to arms, and grants without obstacle to them the bondmen who came to his avowry through Ranulph de Davennam, and such others as they shall show to be theirs. If the earl's sheriff or any serjeant in his court shall accuse any of every knight's fee, and neither the lady nor the heir shall be married with disparagement, but with the good will and assent of their race, and the baron's legacies (legata) shall be observed, and no baron shall lose his bondman by reason of his coming into the city of Chester, unless he remain there a year and a day unclaimed. And by reason of the heavy service which they do in Cestreshyre none of them shall do service to the earl without the border (extra lymam) except of his own free will and at the earl's cost. And if the earl's knights of England, who owe ward to the earl at Chester, be summoned and be come to perform their ward, and there be no army of the earl's enemies present, and no need for the barons, the barons may return to their homes and rest. And if an army of the earl's enemies be in readiness to come into his land of Cestreshyre, or if the castle be besieged, the said barons with their army and view (et visu suo) shall come forthwith at the earl's summons to remove that army to the best of their power, and when that army has retired from the earl's land, the said barons with their army may return to their own lands and rest while the knights of England perform their ward and the said barons are not needed, saving to the earl the services which are due from them. The earl grants that in time of peace only twelve serjeants in eyre shall be kept in his land with one horse for the master serjeant, who moreover shall not have his keep (prebendam non habeat) between Easter and Michaelmas except of grace; and the serjeants themselves shall eat the food they find in men's houses without the purchase of any other kind of food for their use, and shall not eat in any of the barons' demesnes. In time of war, by counsel of the earl or his justice and the barons, a sufficient number of serjeants shall be placed there for the custody of the earl's land as there shall be need.

And the barons, for themselves and their heirs, have remitted to the earl and his heirs the underwritten petitions which they claimed from him, so that henceforth they can claim nothing thereof except by the earl's grace and mercy. To wit, the steward's petition touching wreck and fish cast upon his land by the sea, and touching hunting in the earl's forest with three bows and coursing with his dogs; the petition of others touching the agistment of swine in the earl's forest, touching hunting with three bows in the earl's forest, or coursing with greyhounds in the forest in going upon summons to Chester or returning; and the petition touching the amercement by the judges of Wych of 30 measures (bullon') of salt, but they shall remain amerced and the laws in Wych shall be as they were before. The earl grants and confirms from himself and his heirs to all knights and free tenants of the whole of Cestreshire and their heirs that they may have and hold all the said liberties of the earl's barons and their other lords, whosoever they be, as the barons themselves, knights and free tenants hold the same of the earl. Witnesses:—Hugh, abbot of S. Werburgh's, Chester; Philip de Orreby, then justice of Chester; Henry de Aldithele, Walter Deyvill, Hugh the Despenser (Dispensario), Thomas Despenser, William the Butler (Pincerna), Walter de Coventre, Richard Phitun, Robert de Coudrey, Ivo de Kalecost, Robert de Say, Norman de Paunton, Robert the Despenser, Robert Deyvill, Matthew de Verum, Hamo de Venables, Robert de Mascy, Alan de Waley, Hugh de Columbe, Robert de Pulfort, Peter the Clerk, Hugh de Pascy, Joceralmus de Hellesby, Richard de Brescy, Richard de Kyngesle, Philip de Thernem, Lithulphus de Thwamlawe, Richard de Perpunt, and the whole county of Chester.

(2) Letters Patent of the king made before he assumed the governance of the realm, dated Chester, 27 August, 49 Henry III., confirming the above, and granting that if anyone holding land in the county of Chester is convicted of any felony, of whatever place he is, the lord of the fee shall have and receive his fee after a year and a day, and that the services which

CALENDARS OF STATE PAPERS, &c.

[IMPERIAL 8vo., cloth. Price 15*s*. each Volume or Part.]

As far back as the year 1800, a Committee of the House of Commons recommended that Indexes and Calendars should be made to the Public Records, and thirty-six years afterwards another Committee of the House of Commons reiterated that recommendation in more forcible words; but it was not until the incorporation of the State Paper Office with the Public Record Office that the Master of the Rolls found himself in a position to take the necessary steps for carrying out the wishes of the House of Commons.

On 7 December 1855, he stated to the Lords of the Treasury that although "the Records, State Papers, and Documents in his charge constitute the most complete and perfect series of their kind in the civilized "world," and although "they are of the greatest value in a historical "and constitutional point of view, yet they are comparatively useless to "the public, from the want of proper Calendars and Indexes."

Their Lordships assented to the necessity of having Calendars prepared and printed, and empowered the Master of the Rolls to take such steps as might be necessary for this purpose.

The following Works have been already published in this Series:—

THE CHRONICLES AND MEMORIALS OF GREAT BRITAIN AND IRELAND DURING THE MIDDLE AGES.

[ROYAL 8vo. Price 10*s.* each Volume or Part.]

On 25 July 1822, the House of Commons presented an address to the Crown, stating that the editions of the works of our ancient historians were inconvenient and defective; that many of their writings still remained in manuscript, and, in some cases, in a single copy only. They added, "that an uniform and convenient edition of the whole, published "under His Majesty's royal sanction, would be an undertaking honour- "able to His Majesty's reign, and conducive to the advancement of "historical and constitutional knowledge; that the House therefore "humbly besought His Majesty, that He would be graciously pleased to "give such directions as His Majesty, in His wisdom, might think fit, "for the publication of a complete edition of the ancient historians "of this realm."

The Master of the Rolls, being very desirous that effect should be given to the resolution of the House of Commons, submitted to Her Majesty's Treasury in 1857 a plan for the publication of the ancient chronicles and memorials of the United Kingdom, and it was adopted accordingly.

Of the Chronicles and Memorials, the following volumes have been published. They embrace the period from the earliest time of British history down to the end of the reign of Henry VII.

1. THE CHRONICLE OF ENGLAND, by JOHN CAPGRAVE. Edited by the Rev. F. C. HINGESTON, M.A. 1858.

   Capgrave's Chronicle extends from the creation of the world to the year 1417. As a record of the language spoken in Norfolk (being written in English), it is of considerable value.

2. CHRONICON MONASTERII DE ABINGDON. Vols. I. and II. Edited by the Rev. JOSEPH STEVENSON, M.A., Vicar of Leighton Buzzard. 1858.

   This Chronicle traces the history of the monastery from its foundation by King Ina of Wessex, to the reign of Richard I. The author had access to the title deeds of the house, and incorporates into his history various charters of the Saxon kings, of great importance as illustrating not only the history of the locality but that of the kingdom.

5. Fasciculi Zizaniorum Magistri Johannis Wyclif cum Tritico. Ascribed to Thomas Netter, of Walden, Provincial of the Carmelite Order in England, and Confessor to King Henry the Fifth. Edited by the Rev. W. W. Shirley, M.A., Tutor and late Fellow of Wadham College, Oxford. 1858.

This work gives the only contemporaneous account of the rise of the Lollards.

6. The Buik of the Croniclis of Scotland; or, A Metrical Version of the History of Hector Boece; by William Stewart. Vols. I., II., and III. Edited by W. B. Turnbull, Barrister-at-Law. 1858.

This is a metrical translation of a Latin Prose Chronicle, written in the first half of the 16th century. The narrative begins with the earliest legends and ends with the death of James I. of Scotland, and the "evil ending of the traitors that slew him." The peculiarities of the Scottish dialect are well illustrated in this version.

7. Johannis Capgrave Liber de Illustribus Henricis. Edited by the Rev. F. C. Hingeston, M.A. 1858.

The first part relates only to the history of the Empire from the election of Henry I. the Fowler, to the end of the reign of the Emperor Henry VI. The second part is devoted to English history, from the accession of Henry I. in 1100, to 1446, which was the twenty-fourth year of the reign of Henry VI. The third part contains the lives of illustrious men who have borne the name of Henry in various parts of the world.

8. Historia Monasterii S. Augustini Cantuariensis, by Thomas of Elmham, formerly Monk and Treasurer of that Foundation. Edited by Charles Hardwick, M.A., Fellow of St. Catharine's Hall, and Christian Advocate in the University of Cambridge. 1858.

This history extends from the arrival of St. Augustine in Kent until 1191.

9. Eulogium (Historiarum sive Temporis): Chronicon ab Orbe condito usque ad annum Domini 1366; a monacho quodam Malmesbiriensi exaratum. Vols. I., II., and III. Edited by F. S. Haydon, B.A. 1858–1863.

This is a Latin Chronicle extending from the Creation to the latter part of the reign of Edward III., and written by a monk of Malmesbury, about the year 1367. A continuation carries the history of England down to the year 1413.

10. Memorials of Henry the Seventh: Bernardi Andreæ Tholosatis Vita Regis Henrici Septimi; necnon alia quædam ad eundem Regem spectantia. Edited by James Gairdner. 1858.

The contents of this volume are—(1) a life of Henry VII., by his poet Laureate and historiographer, Bernard André, of Toulouse, with some compositions in verse, of which he is supposed to have been the author; (2) the journals of Roger Machado during certain embassies to Spain and Brittany, the first of which had reference to the marriage of the King's son, Arthur, with Catharine of Arragon; (3) two curious reports by envoys sent to Spain in 1505 touching the succession to the Crown of Castile, and a project of marriage between Henry VII. and the Queen of Naples; and (4) an account of Philip of Castile's reception in England in 1506. Other documents of interest are given in an appendix.

11. Memorials of Henry the Fifth. I.—Vita Henrici Quinti, Roberto Redmanno auctore. II.—Versus Rhythmici in laudem Regis Henrici Quinti. III.—Elmhami Liber Metricus de Henrico V. Edited by Charles A. Cole. 1858.

12. Munimenta Gildhallæ Londoniensis; Liber Albus, Liber Custumarum, et Liber Horn, in archivis Gildhallæ asservati. Vol. I., Liber Albus. Vol. II. (in Two Parts), Liber Custumarum. Vol. III., Translation of the Anglo-Norman Passages in Liber Albus, Glossaries, Appendices, and Index. Edited by Henry Thomas Riley, M.A., Barrister-at-Law. 1859–1862.

The Liber Albus, compiled by John Carpenter, Common Clerk of the City of London in the year 1419, gives an account of the laws, regulations, and institutions of that City in the 12th, 13th, 14th, and early part of the 15th centuries. The Liber Custumarum was compiled in the early part of the 14th century during the reign of Edward II. It also gives an account of the laws, regulations, and institutions of the City of London in the 12th, 13th, and early part of the 14th centuries.

13. Chronica Johannis de Oxenedes. Edited by Sir Henry Ellis, K.H. 1859.

Although this Chronicle tells of the arrival of Hengist and Horsa, it substantially begins with the reign of King Alfred, and comes down to 1292. It is particularly valuable for notices of events in the eastern portions of the Kingdom.

14. A Collection of Political Poems and Songs relating to English History, from the Accession of Edward III. to the Reign of Henry VIII. Vols. I. and II. Edited by Thomas Wright, M.A. 1859–1861.

15. The "Opus Tertium," "Opus Minus," &c. of Roger Bacon. Edited by J. S. Brewer, M.A., Professor of English Literature, King's College, London. 1859.

16. Bartholomæi de Cotton, Monachi Norwicensis, Historia Anglicana; 449–1298; necnon ejusdem Liber de Achiepiscopis et Episcopis Angliæ. Edited by Henry Richards Luard, M.A., Fellow and Assistant Tutor of Trinity College, Cambridge, 1859.

17. Brut y Tywysogion; or, The Chronicle of the Princes of Wales. Edited by the Rev. John Williams ab Ithel, M.A. 1860.

This work, written in the ancient Welsh language, begins with the abdication and death of Caedwala at Rome, in the year 681, and continues the history down to the subjugation of Wales by Edward I., about the year 1282.

18. A Collection of Royal and Historical Letters during the Reign of Henry IV. 1399–1404. Edited by the Rev. F. C. Hingeston, M.A., of Exeter College, Oxford. 1860.

19. The Repressor of over much Blaming of the Clergy. By Reginald Pecock, sometime Bishop of Chichester. Vols. I. and II. Edited by the Rev. Churchill Babington, B.D., Fellow of St. John's College, Cambridge. 1860.

The "Repressor" may be considered the earliest piece of good theological disquisition of which our English prose literature can boast. The author was born about the end of the fourteenth century, consecrated Bishop of St. Asaph in the year 1444, and translated to the see of Chichester in 1450. His work is interesting chiefly because it gives a full account of the views of the Lollards, and it has great value for the philologist.

20. Annales Cambriæ. Edited by the Rev. John Williams ab Ithel, M.A. 1860.

These annals, which are in Latin, commenced in 447, and come down to 1288. The earlier portion appears to be taken from an Irish Chronicle used by Tigernach, and by the compiler of the Annals of Ulster.

21. The Works of Giraldus Cambrensis. Vols. I.–IV. Edited by the Rev. J. S. Brewer, M.A., Professor of English Literature, King's College, London. Vols. V.–VII. Edited by the Rev. James F. Dimock, M.A., Rector of Barnburgh, Yorkshire. Vol. VIII. Edited by George F. Warner, M.A., of the Department of MSS., British Museum. 1861–1891.

These volumes contain the historical works of Gerald du Barry, who lived in the reigns of Henry II., Richard I., and John. His works are of a very miscellaneous nature both 24. LETTERS AND PAPERS ILLUSTRATIVE OF THE REIGNS OF RICHARD III. AND HENRY VII. Vols. I. and II. Edited by JAMES GAIRDNER. 1861–1863.

The principal contents of the volumes are some diplomatic Papers of Richard III., correspondence between Henry VII. and Ferdinand and Isabella of Spain; documents relating to Edmund de la Pole, Earl of Suffolk; and a portion of the correspondence of James IV. of Scotland.

25. LETTERS OF BISHOP GROSSETESTE. Edited by the Rev. HENRY RICHARDS LUARD, M.A., Fellow and Assistant Tutor of Trinity College, Cambridge. 1861.

The letters of Robert Grosseteste range in date from about 1210 to 1253, and relate to various matters connected not only with the political history of England during the reign of Henry III., but with its ecclesiastical condition. They refer especially to the diocese of Lincoln, of which Grosseteste was bishop.

26. DESCRIPTIVE CATALOGUE OF MANUSCRIPTS RELATING TO THE HISTORY OF GREAT BRITAIN AND IRELAND. Vol. I. (in Two Parts); Anterior to the Norman Invasion. Vol. II.; 1066–1200. Vol. III.; 1200–1327. By Sir THOMAS DUFFUS HARDY, D.C.L., Deputy Keeper of the Records. 1862–1871.

The object of this work is to publish notices of all known sources of British history, both printed and unprinted, in one continued sequence. The materials, when historical (as distinguished from biographical), are arranged under the year in which the latest event is recorded in the chronicle or history, and not under the period in which its author, real or supposed, flourished. Biographies are enumerated under the year in which the person commemorated died, and not under the year in which the life was written. A brief analysis of each work has been added when deserving it, in which original portions are distinguished from mere compilations. A biographical sketch of the author of each piece has been added, and a brief notice of such British authors as have written on historical subjects.

27. ROYAL AND OTHER HISTORICAL LETTERS ILLUSTRATIVE OF THE REIGN OF HENRY III. Vol. I., 1216–1235. Vol. II., 1236–1272. Selected and edited by the Rev. W. W. SHIRLEY, D.D., Regius Professor of Ecclesiastical History, and Canon of Christ Church, Oxford. 1862–1866.

28. CHRONICA MONASTERII S. ALBANI.—1. THOMÆ WALSINGHAM HISTORIA ANGLICANA; Vol. I., 1272–1381: Vol. II., 1381–1422. 2. WILLELMI RISHANGER CHRONICA ET ANNALES, 1259–1307. 3. JOHANNIS DE TROKELOWE ET HENRICI DE BLANEFORDE CHRONICA ET ANNALES, 1259–1296; 1307–1324; 1392–1406. 4. GESTA ABBATUM MONASTERII S. ALBANI, A THOMA WALSINGHAM, REGNANTE RICARDO SECUNDO, EJUSDEM ECCLESIÆ PRÆCENTORE, COMPILATA; Vol. I., 793–1290: Vol. II., 1290–1349: Vol. III., 1349–1411. 5. JOHANNIS AMUNDESHAM, MONACHI MONASTERII S. ALBANI, UT VIDETUR, ANNALES; Vols. I. and II. 6. REGISTRA QUORUNDAM ABBATUM MONASTERII S. ALBANI, QUI SÆCULO XV^mo^ FLORUERE; Vol. I., REGISTRUM ABBATIÆ JOHANNIS WHETHAMSTEDE, ABBATIS MONASTERII SANCTI ALBANI, ITERUM SUSCEPTÆ; ROBERTO BLAKENEY, CAPELLANO, QUONDAM ADSCRIPTUM: Vol. II., REGISTRA JOHANNIS WHETHAMSTEDE, WILLELMI ALBON, ET WILLELMI WALINGFORDE, ABBATUM MONASTERII SANCTI ALBANI, CUM APPENDICE, CONTINENTE QUASDAM EPISTOLAS, A JOHANNE WHETHAMSTEDE CONSCRIPTAS. 7. YPODIGMA NEUSTRIÆ A THOMA WALSINGHAM, QUONDAM MONACHO MONASTERII S. ALBANI, CONSCRIPTUM. Edited by HENRY THOMAS RILEY, M.A., Barrister-at-Law. 1863–1876.

In the first two volumes is a History of England, from the death of Henry III. to the death of Henry V., by Thomas Walsingham, Precentor of St. Albans.

In the 3rd volume is a Chronicle of English History, attributed to William Rishanger, who lived in the reign of Edward I.: an account of transactions attending the award of the kingdom of Scotland to John Balliol, 1291-1292, also attributed to William Rishanger but on no sufficient ground: a short Chronicle of English History, 1292 to 1300, by an unknown hand: a short Chronicle Willelmi Rishanger Gesta Edwardi Primi, Regis Angliæ, with Annales Regum Angliæ, probably by the same hand: and fragments of three Chronicles of English History, 1285 to 1307.

In the 4th volume is a Chronicle of English History, 1259 to 1296: Annals of Edward II., 1307 to 1323, by John de Trokelowe, a monk of St. Albans, and a continuation of Trokelowe's Annals, 1323, 1324, by Henry de Blaneforde: a full Chronicle of English History, 1392 to 1406; and an account of the Benefactors of St. Albans, written in the early part of the 15th century.

The 5th, 6th, and 7th volumes contain a history of the Abbots of St. Albans, 793 to 1411, mainly compiled by Thomas Walsingham: with a Continuation.

The 8th and 9th volumes, in continuation of the Annals, contain a Chronicle, probably by John Amundesham, a monk of St. Albans.

The 10th and 11th volumes relate especially to the acts and proceedings of Abbots Whethamstede, Albon, and Wallingford.

The 12th volume contains a compendious History of England to the reign of Henry V., and of Normandy in early times, also by Thomas Walsingham, and dedicated to Henry V.

29. CHRONICON ABBATIÆ EVESHAMENSIS, AUCTORIBUS DOMINICO PRIORE EVESHAMIÆ ET THOMA DE MARLEBERGE ABBATE, A FUNDATIONE AD ANNUM 1213, UNA CUM CONTINUATIONE AD ANNUM 1418. Edited by the Rev. W. D. MACRAY, Bodleian Library, Oxford. 1863.

The Chronicle of Evesham illustrates the history of that important monastery from about 690 to 1418. Its chief feature is an autobiography, which makes us acquainted with the inner daily life of a great abbey. Interspersed are many notices of general, personal, and local history.

30. RICARDI DE CIRENCESTRIA SPECULUM HISTORIALE DE GESTIS REGUM ANGLIÆ. Vol. I., 447–871. Vol. II., 872–1066. Edited by JOHN E. B. MAYOR, M.A., Fellow of St. John's College, Cambridge. 1863–1869.

Richard of Cirencester's history, in four books, extends from 447 to 1066. It gives many charters in favour of Westminster Abbey, and a very full account of the lives and miracles of the saints, especially of Edward the Confessor, whose reign occupies the fourth book. A treatise on the Coronation, by William of Sudbury, a monk of Westminster, fills book ii. c. 3.

31. YEAR BOOKS OF THE REIGN OF EDWARD THE FIRST. Years 20–21, 21–22, 30–31, 32–33, and 33–35 Edw. I; and 11–12 Edw. III. Edited and translated by ALFRED JOHN HORWOOD, Barrister-at-Law. Years 12–13, 13–14, 14, 14–15, and 15, Edward III. Edited and translated by LUKE OWEN PIKE, M.A., Barrister-at-Law. 1863–1891.

The "Year Books" are the earliest of our Law Reports. They contain matter not only of practical utility to lawyers in the present day, but also illustrative of almost every branch of history, while for certain philological purposes they hold a position absolutely unique.

32. NARRATIVES OF THE EXPULSION OF THE ENGLISH FROM NORMANDY, 1449–1450.—Robertus Blondelli de Reductione Normanniæ: Le Recouvrement de Normendie, par Berry, Hérault du Roy: Conferences between the Ambassadors of France and England. Edited by the Rev. JOSEPH STEVENSON, M.A. 1863.

33. HISTORIA ET CARTULARIUM MONASTERII S. PETRI GLOUCESTRIÆ. Vols. I., II., and III. Edited by W. H. HART, F.S.A., Membre correspondant de la Société des Antiquaires de Normandie. 1863–1867.

34. ALEXANDRI NECKAM DE NATURIS RERUM LIBRI DUO; with NECKAM'S POEM, DE LAUDIBUS DIVINÆ SAPIENTIÆ. Edited by THOMAS WRIGHT, M.A. 1863.

In the De Naturis Rerum are to be found what may be called the rudiments of many sciences mixed up with much error and ignorance. Neckam had his own views in morals, and in giving us a glimpse of them, as well as of his other opinions, he throws much

37. MAGNA VITA S. HUGONIS EPISCOPI LINCOLNIENSIS. Edited by the Rev JAMES F. DIMOCK, M.A., Rector of Barnburgh, Yorkshire. 1864.

This work is valuable, not only as a biography of a celebrated ecclesiastic but as th work of a man, who, from personal knowledge, gives notices of passing events, as well as c individuals who were then taking active part in public affairs.

38. CHRONICLES AND MEMORIALS OF THE REIGN OF RICHARD THE FIRST Vol. I.:—ITINERARIUM PEREGRINORUM ET GESTA REGIS RICARDI. Vol II.:—EPISTOLÆ CANTUARIENSES; the Letters of the Prior and Conven of Christ Church, Canterbury; 1187 to 1199. Edited by the Rev WILLIAM STUBBS, M.A., Vicar of Navestock, Essex, and Lambeth Librarian. 1864–1865.

The authorship of the Chronicle in Vol. I., hitherto ascribed to Geoffrey Vinesauf, i now more correctly ascribed to Richard, Canon of the Holy Trinity of London.

In letters in Vol. II., written between 1187 and 1199, had their origin in a dispute whicl arose from the attempts of Baldwin and Hubert, archbishops of Canterbury, to found college of secular canons, a project which gave great umbrage to the monks of Canterbury.

39. RECUEIL DES CRONIQUES ET ANCHIENNES ISTORIES DE LA GRANT BRETAIGNE A PRESENT NOMME ENGLETERRE, par JEHAN DE WAURIN. Vol. I. Albins to 688. Vol. II., 1399–1422. Vol. III., 1422–1431. Edited by WILLIAM HARDY, F.S.A. 1864–1879. Vol. IV., 1431–1447. Vol. V., 1447–1471 Edited by Sir WILLIAM HARDY, F.S.A., and EDWARD L. C. P. HARDY, F.S.A. 1884–1891.

40. A COLLECTION OF THE CHRONICLES AND ANCIENT HISTORIES OF GREAT BRITAIN, NOW CALLED ENGLAND, by JOHN DE WAURIN. Vol. I., Albins to 668. Vol. II., 1399–1422. Vol. III., 1422–1431. (Translations of the preceding Vols. I., II., and III.) Edited and translated by Sir WILLIAM HARDY, F.S.A., and EDWARD L. C. P. HARDY, F.S.A. 1864–1891.

41. POLYCHRONICON RANULPHI HIGDEN, with Trevisa's Translation. Vols. I. and II. Edited by CHURCHILL BABINGTON, B.D., Senior Fellow of St. John's College, Cambridge Vols. III.–IX. Edited by the Rev. JOSEPH RAWSON LUMBY, D.D., Norrisian Professor of Divinity, Vicar of St. Edward's, Fellow of St. Catharine's College, and late Fellow of Magdalene College, Cambridge. 1865–1886.

This chronicle begins with the creation, and is brought down to the reign of Edward III. It enables us to form a very fair estimate of the knowledge of history and geography which well-informed readers of the fourteenth and fifteenth centuries possessed for it was then the standard work on general history.

The two English translations, which are printed with the original Latin, afford interesting illustrations of the gradual change of our language, for one was made in the fourteenth century, the other in the fifteenth.

42. LE LIVERE DE REIS DE BRITTANIE E LE LIVERE DE REIS DE ENGLETERRE. Edited by the Rev. JOHN GLOVER, M.A., Vicar of Brading, Isle of Wight, formerly Librarian of Trinity College, Cambridge. 1865.

These two treaties are valuable as careful abstracts of previous historians. Some various readings are given which are interesting to the philologist as instances of semi-Saxonised French.

43. CHRONICA MONASTERII DE MELSA AB ANNO 1150 USQUE AD ANNUM 1406. Vols. I., II., and III. Edited by EDWARD AUGUSTUS BOND, Assistant Keeper of Manuscripts, and Egerton Librarian, British Museum. 1866–1868.

The Abbey of Meaux was a Cistercian house, and the work of its abbot is a faithful and often minute record of the establishment of a religious community, of its progress in forming an ample revenue, of its struggles to maintain its acquisitions, and of its relations to the governing institutions of the country.

44. MATTHÆ PARISIENSIS HISTORIA ANGLORUM, SIVE, UT VULGO DICITUR, HISTORIA MINOR. Vols. I., II., and III. 1067–1253. Edited by Sir FREDERICK MADDEN, K.H., Keeper of the Manuscript Department of British Museum. 1866–1869.

45. LIBER MONASTERII DE HYDA: A CHRONICLE AND CHARTULARY OF HYDE ABBEY, WINCHESTER, 455–1023. Edited by EDWARD EDWARDS. 1866.

The "Book of Hyde" is a compilation from much earlier sources which are usually indicated with considerable care and precision. In many cases, however, the Hyde

Chronicler appears to correct, to qualify, or to amplify the statements, which, in substance, he adopts.

There is to be found, in the "Book of Hyde," much information relating to the reign of King Alfred which is not known to exist elsewhere. The volume contains some curious specimens of Anglo-Saxon and mediæval English.

46. CHRONICON SCOTORUM: A CHRONICLE OF IRISH AFFAIRS, from the earliest times to 1135; and SUPPLEMENT, containing the Events from 1141 to 1150. Edited, with Translation, by WILLIAM MAUNSELL HENNESSY, M.R.I.A. 1866.

47. THE CHRONICLE OF PIERRE DE LANGTOFT, IN FRENCH VERSE, FROM THE EARLIEST PERIOD TO THE DEATH OF EDWARD I. Vols. I. and II. Edited by THOMAS WRIGHT, M.A. 1866–1868.

It is probable that Pierre de Langtoft was a canon of Bridlington, in Yorkshire, and lived in the reign of Edward I., and during a portion of the reign of Edward II. This chronicle is divided into three parts; in the first, is an abridgment of Geoffrey of Monmouth's "Historia Britonum;" in the second, a history of the Anglo-Saxon and Norman kings, to the death of Henry III.; in the third, a history of the reign of Edward I. The language is a curious specimen of the French of Yorkshire.

48. THE WAR OF THE GAEDHIL WITH THE GAILL, OR THE INVASIONS OF IRELAND BY THE DANES AND OTHER NORSEMEN. Edited, with a Translation, by the Rev. JAMES HENTHORN TODD, D.D., Senior Fellow of Trinity College, and Regius Professor of Hebrew in the University of Dublin. 1867.

The work in its present form, in the editor's opinion, is a comparatively modern version of an ancient original. The story is told after the manner of the Scandinavian Sagas.

49. GESTA REGIS HENRICI SECUNDI BENEDICTI ABBATIS. CHRONICLE OF THE REIGNS OF HENRY II. AND RICHARD I., 1169–1192, known under the name of BENEDICT OF PETERBOROUGH. Vols. I. and II. Edited by the REV. WILLIAM STUBBS, M.A., Regius Professor of Modern History, Oxford, and Lambeth Librarian. 1867.

50. MUNIMENTA ACADEMICA, OR, DOCUMENTS ILLUSTRATIVE OF ACADEMICAL LIFE AND STUDIES AT OXFORD (in Two Parts). Edited by the Rev. HENRY ANSTEY, M.A., Vicar of St. Wendron, Cornwall, and lately Vice-Principal of St. Mary Hall, Oxford. 1868.

51. CHRONICA MAGISTRI ROGERI DE HOUEDENE. Vols. I., II., III., and IV. Edited by the Rev. WILLIAM STUBBS, M.A., Regius Professor of Modern History, and Fellow of Oriel College, Oxford. 1868–1871.

The earlier portion, extending from 732 to 1148, appears to be a copy of a compilation made in Northumbria about 1161, to which Hoveden added little. From 1148 to 1169—a very valuable portion of this work—the matter is derived from another source, to which Hoveden appears to have supplied little. From 1170 to 1192 is the portion which corresponds to some extent with the Chronicle known under the name of Benedict of Peterborough (see No. 49). From 1192 to 1201 may be said to be wholly Hoveden's work.

57. MATTHÆI PARISIENSIS, MONACHI SANCTI ALBANI, CHRONICA MAJORA. Vol. I. The Creation to A.D. 1066. Vol. II. A.D. 1067 to A.D. 1216. Vol. III. A.D. 1216 to A.D. 1239. Vol. IV. A.D. 1240 to A.D. 1247. Vol. V. A.D. 1248 to A.D. 1259. Vol. VI. Additamenta. Vol. VII. Index. Edited by the Rev. HENRY RICHARDS LUARD, D.D., Fellow of Trinity College, Registrary of the University, and Vicar of Great St. Mary's, Cambridge. 1872–1884.

58. MEMORIALE FRATRIS WALTERI DE COVENTRIA.—THE HISTORICAL COLLECTIONS OF WALTER OF COVENTRY. Vols. I. and II. Edited by the Rev. WILLIAM STUBBS, M.A., Regius Professor of Modern History, and Fellow of Oriel College, Oxford. 1872–1873.

The part relating to the first quarter of the thirteenth century is the most valuable.

59. THE ANGLO-LATIN SATIRICAL POETS AND EPIGRAMMATISTS OF THE TWELFTH CENTURY. Vols. I. and II. Collected and edited by THOMAS WRIGHT, M.A., Corresponding Member of the National Institute of France (Académie des Inscriptions et Belles-Lettres). 1872.

60. MATERIALS FOR A HISTORY OF THE REIGN OF HENRY VII., FROM ORIGINAL DOCUMENTS PRESERVED IN THE PUBLIC RECORD OFFICE. Vols. I. and II. Edited by the Rev. WILLIAM CAMPBELL, M.A., one of Her Majesty's Inspectors of Schools. 1873–1877.

61. HISTORICAL PAPERS AND LETTERS FROM THE NORTHERN REGISTERS. Edited by the Rev. JAMES RAINE, M.A., Canon of York, and Secretary of the Surtees Society. 1873.

62. REGISTRUM PALATINUM DUNELMENSE. THE REGISTER OF RICHARD DE KELLAWE, LORD PALATINE AND BISHOP OF DURHAM; 1311–1316. Vols. I.–IV. Edited by Sir THOMAS DUFFUS HARDY, D.C.L., Deputy Keeper of the Records. 1873–1878.

63. MEMORIALS OF SAINT DUNSTAN, ARCHBISHOP OF CANTERBURY. Edited by the Rev. WILLIAM STUBBS, M.A., Regius Professor of Modern History, and Fellow of Oriel College, Oxford. 1874.

65. THÓMAS SAGA ERKIBYSKUPS. A LIFE OF ARCHBISHOP THOMAS BECKET, IN ICELANDIC. Vols. I. and II. Edited, with English Translation, Notes, and Glossary by M. EIRÍKR MAGNÚSSON, M.A., Sub-Librarian of the University Library, Cambridge. 1875–1884.

66. RADULPHI DE COGGESHALL CHRONICON ANGLICANUM. Edited by the Rev. JOSEPH STEVENSON, M.A. 1875.

67. MATERIALS FOR THE HISTORY OF THOMAS BECKET, ARCHBISHOP OF CANTERBURY. Vols. I.–VI. Edited by the Rev. JAMES CRAIGIE ROBERTSON, M.A., Canon of Canterbury. 1875–1883. Vol. VII. Edited by JOSEPH BRIGSTOCKE SHEPPARD, LL.D. 1885.

The first volume contains the life of that celebrated man, and the miracles after his death, by William, a monk of Canterbury. The second, the life by Benedict of Peterborough; John of Salisbury; Alan of Tewkesbury; and Edward Grim. The third, the life by William Fitzstephen; and Herbert of Bosham. The fourth, anonymous lives, Quadrilogus, &c. The fifth, sixth, and seventh, the Epistles, and known letters.

68. RADULFI DE DICETO DECANI LUNDONIENSIS OPERA HISTORICA. THE HISTORICAL WORKS OF MASTER RALPH DE DICETO, DEAN OF LONDON. Vols. I. and II. Edited by the Rev. WILLIAM STUBBS M.A., Regius Professor of Modern History, and Fellow of Oriel College, Oxford. 1876.

The abbreviationes Chronicorum extend to 1147 and the Ymagines Historiarum to 1201.

69. Roll of the Proceedings of the King's Council in Ireland, for a Portion of the 16th Year of the Reign of Richard II. 1392–93. Edited by the Rev. James Graves, A.B. 1877.

70. Henrici de Bracton de Legibus et Consuetudinibus Angliæ Libri Quinque in Varios Tractatus Distincti. Vols. I.–VI. Edited by Sir Travers Twiss, Q.C., D.C.L. 1878–1883.

71. The Historians of the Church of York, and its Archbishops. Vols. I.–III. Edited by the Rev. James Raine, M.A., Canon of York, and Secretary of the Surtees Society. 1879–1894.

72. Registrum Malmesburiense. The Register of Malmesbury Abbey; Preserved in the Public Record Office. Vols. I. and II. Edited by the Rev. J. S. Brewer, M.A., Preacher at the Rolls, and Rector of Toppesfield; and Charles Trice Martin, B.A. 1879–1880.

73. Historical Works of Gervase of Canterbury. Vols. I. and II. Edited by the Rev. William Stubbs, D.D.; Canon Residentiary of St. Paul's, London; Regius Professor of Modern History and Fellow of Oriel College, Oxford; &c. 1879, 1880.

74. Henrici Archidiaconi Huntendunensis Historia Anglorum. The History of the English, by Henry, Archdeacon of Huntingdon, from A.D. 55 to A.D. 1154, in Eight Books. Edited by Thomas Arnold, M.A. 1879.

75. The Historical Works of Symeon of Durham. Vols. I. and II. Edited by Thomas Arnold, M.A. 1882–1885.

76. Chronicle of the Reigns of Edward I. and Edward II. Vols. I. and II. Edited by the Rev. William Stubbs, D.D., Canon Residentiary of St. Paul's, London; Regius Professor of Modern History, and Fellow of Oriel College, Oxford, &c. 1882, 1883.

The first volume of these Chronicles contains the Annales Londonienses and the Annales Paulini: the second I.—Commendatio Lamentabilis in Transitu magni Regis Edwardi. II.—Gesta Edwardi de Carnarvan Auctore Canonico Bridlingtoniensi. III.—Monachi cujusdam Malmesberiensis Vita Edwardi II. IV.—Vita et Mors Edwardi II., conscripta a Thoma de la Moore.

77. Registrum Epistolarum Fratris Johannis Peckham, Archiepiscopi Cantuariensis. Vols. I.–III. Edited by Charles Trice Martin, B.A., F.S.A., 1882–1886.

78. Register of S. Osmund. Edited by the Rev. W. H. Rich Jones, M.A., F.S.A., Canon of Salisbury, Vicar of Bradford-on-Avon. Vols. I. and II. 1883, 1884.

Vol. III. ontains the Gesta Stephani Regis, the Chronicle of Richard of Hexham, the Relatio de Standardo of St. Aelred of Rievaulx, the poem of Jordan Fantosme, and the Chronicle of Richard of Devizes.
Vol. IV. contains the Chronicle of Robert of Torigni.

83. CHRONICLE OF THE ABBEY OF RAMSEY. Edited by the Rev. WILLIAM DUNN MACRAY, M.A., F.S.A., Rector of Ducklington, Oxon. 1886.

84. CHRONICA ROGERI DE WENDOVER, SIVE FLORES HISTORIARUM. Vols. I.–III. Edited by HENRY GAY HEWLETT, Keeper of the Records of the Land Revenue. 1886–1889.

This edition gives that portion only of Roger of Wendover's Chronicle which can be accounted an original authority.

85. THE LETTER BOOKS OF THE MONASTERY OF CHRIST CHURCH, CANTERBURY, Edited by JOSEPH BRIGSTOCKE SHEPPARD, LL.D. Vols. I.–III., 1887–1889.

The Letters printed in these volumes were chiefly written between 1296 and 1333.

86. THE METRICAL CHRONICLE OF ROBERT OF GLOUCESTER. Edited by WILLIAM ALDIS WRIGHT, M.A., Senior Fellow of Trinity College, Cambridge. Parts I. and II., 1887.

The date of the composition of this Chronicle is placed about the year 1300. The writer appears to have been an eye witness of many events which he describes. The language in which it is written was the dialect of Gloucestershire at that time.

87. CHRONICLE OF ROBERT OF BRUNNE. Edited by FREDERICK JAMES FURNIVALL, M.A., Barrister-at-Law. Parts I. and II. 1887.

Robert of Brunne, or Bourne, co. Lincoln, was a member of the Gilbertine Order established at Sempringham. His Chronicle is described by its editor as a work of fiction, a contribution not to English history, but to the history of English.

88. ICELANDIC SAGAS AND OTHER HISTORICAL DOCUMENTS relating to the Settlements and Descents of the Northmen on the British Isles. Vol. I. Orkneyinga Saga, and Magnus Saga. Vol. II. Part III. (Mary and Elizabeth). 1867.

Part IV. (James I. to Anne). 1868.

The first Part extends from William the Conqueror to Henry VII., and contains autographs of the kings of England, as well as of many other illustrious personages famous in history, and some interesting charters, letters patent, and state papers. The second Part for the reigns of Henry VIII. and Edward VI., consists principally of holograph letters, and autographs of kings, princes, statesmen, and other persons of great historical interest, who lived during those reigns. The third Part contains similar documents for the reigns of Mary and Elizabeth, including a signed bill of Lady Jane Grey. The fourth Part concludes the series, and comprises a number of documents taken from the originals belonging to the Constable of the Tower of London; also several records illustrative of the Gunpowder Plot, and a woodcut containing portraits of Mary Queen of Scots and James VI., circulated by their adherents in England, 1580–3.

Fac-similes of Anglo-Saxon Manuscripts. Photozincographed, by Command of Her Majesty, upon the recommendation of the Master of the Rolls, by the Director-General of the Ordnance Survey, Lieut-General J. Cameron, R.E., C.B., F.R.S., and edited by W. Basevi Sanders, an Assistant Record Keeper. Part I. Price 2*l.* 10*s.*

The Anglo-Saxon MSS. represented in this volume from the earlier portions of the collection of archives belonging to the Dean and Chapter of Canterbury, and consist of a series of 25 charters, deeds, and wills, commencing with a record of proceedings at the first Synodal Council of Clovestho in 742, and terminating with the first part of a tripartite chirograph of the sixth year of the reign of Edward the Confessor.

Fac-similes of Anglo-Saxon Manuscripts. Photozincographed, by Command of Her Majesty, upon the recommendation of the Master of the Rolls, by the Director-General of the Ordnance Survey, Major-General A. Cooke, R.E., C.B., and collected and edited by W. Basevi Sanders, an Assistant Record Keeper. Part II. Price 3*l.* 10*s.*
(Also, separately. Edward the Confessor's Charter. Price 2*s.*)

The originals of the Fac-similes contained in this volume belong to the Deans and Chapters of Westminster, Exeter, Wells, Winchester, and Worcester; the Marquis of Bath, the Earl of Ilchester, Winchester College, Her Majesty's Public Record Office, Bodleian Library, Somersetshire Archæological and National History Society's Museum in Taunton Castle, and William Salt Library at Stafford.
